In your opinion is the adult able to manage their own affairs?

Yes

No

If the answer is no, why do you think this is the case?

(Please detail below. It would be helpful if you could, to the best of your knowledge, indicate when the adult first started to become incapable of looking after their own affairs. It is likely that the adult's GP will be contacted to confirm this information).

(Please continue on a separate A4 sheet if required)

5. What is the complaint or concern you have?

Please give a brief description of why you believe the adult's property or financial affairs are or might be at risk. Investigating officers will more than likely contact you to clarify your concern, but it would be helpful if you could provide as much factual information and relevant evidence as you have at this stage.

(Please continue on a separate A4 sheet if required)

On completion please forward this form to the Investigation Team at:
